
QUEST COORDINATOR & KIDS CONTENT CREATOR

The Quest Coordinator & Kids Content Creator will lead our weekend small group program for 1st -4th grade, create engaging experiences in person and online for kids, and lead a volunteer team of teen and adult leaders.

Full-time position, weekend hours required | Timonium, Maryland

NextGen Team

You will be part of the team creating environments and relationships at Nativity that promote lasting and mature faith in Christ and the Church among those six weeks to 18 years old.

Must-Haves

- Love for kids and volunteer ministers serving kids
- The ability to communicate to children at all ages, specifically elementary aged children
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Flexible approach to working in energetic, demanding, fast paced environment

Nice-to-Haves

- Experience in kids or student ministry
- Degrees or training in education, child development or theology
- An understanding of Nativity, its culture, and values

General Responsibilities

- Collaborate with the NextGen Team to create message series and weekly game plans including program outlines, crafts, activity sheets, prayer experiences, and games.
- Create a yearly plan for Quest and Time Travelers.
- Serve on the weekends overseeing Quest and Time Travelers in collaboration with the NextGen team.
- Juggle multiple communication tools and daily demand from families, staff and ministry partners.
- Participate in weekly meetings with NextGen Director, NextGen team, and Nativity Staff.
- Innovate, adapt, and collaborate with Kids and Student Teams while fusing together programs, people, and environments to build the culture we want in the Next Generation.
- Utilize your general knowledge of Catholic practices, apply the Catholic lectionary for kids, and understand how to communicate Biblical truths to children.
- In your role, your work product will also generate content for Rebuilt Parish while meeting the mission of Nativity. Your role will enhance, support, and grow the Rebuilt Parish movement.

